

Supervising Veterinarian or Supervising Veterinary Technician Attestation:

As a licensee of the state of Nevada who is supervising a VTIT (veterinary technician-in-training) you acknowledge that you must uphold certain responsibilities. This acknowledgement ensures that you are aware that a supervisor:

Is responsible for determining the competency of the licensed veterinary technician to perform delegated tasks of animal health care.

Shall ensure that the licensed veterinary technician performs the tasks of animal health care delegated to the licensed veterinary technician in a manner which is consistent with good veterinary medical practice.

Shall make all decisions relating to the diagnosis, treatment, management, and future disposition of the animal.

Shall examine the animal before delegating any tasks to the licensed veterinary technician. The examination must be conducted at such time as good veterinary medical practice requires, consistent with the particular task of animal health care which is delegated.

Is responsible for ensuring that unlicensed personnel do not perform duties that are specific to licensed veterinary technicians or licensed veterinarians.

A supervising veterinarian who does not comply with the requirements of this section may be subject to disciplinary action.

Supervisors and VTIT registrants must report any change in employment status within 20 days of the change to the Board office.
